

Our Customer and Service Charter

We provide an independent service for you to present your council tax or business rates appeal, which has not been determined with the Valuation Office Agency or the local council.

At the heart of our Customer and Service Charter is our commitment to provide the fairest, most effective and efficient service in the administration of appeals.

This Charter explains the standards of service you can expect from us when you ask the Valuation Tribunal for England to resolve your dispute.

Contact us

You can get a step by step guide on what happens during your appeal process from our website at www.valuationtribunal.gov.uk or by calling us on 0300 123 2035.

Our opening hours are 8:30 to 17:30, Monday to Friday.

Please let us know if you would like our Charter in a different format, including large print, Easyread or brail.

We can provide general information on Tribunal procedures, but we cannot give you legal advice or tell you how to present your case. Also, we cannot say if your case is likely to succeed or tell you what the Tribunal will decide.

Formal administrative complaints

We are committed to providing a quality service and want to get things right, however we recognise that sometimes they do go wrong. Wherever possible we will aim to handle your concerns quickly at your first point of contact.

Please be aware that the VTS can only consider complaints about its staff and the processes before and after a Tribunal hearing. Further information can be found in the VTS Complaints Policy.

We aim to acknowledge all formal complaints within one week and send a full reply within one month. If you are not happy with the response you can ask for the complaint to be referred to the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman for investigation.

Judicial complaints

The personal conduct of the members of the Valuation Tribunal for England (VTE) is initially a matter for the President of the Tribunal and ultimately for the Lord Chancellor.

You can write to the President at: president@valuationtribunal.gov.uk.
